DESCRIBE YOURSELF IN 50 WORDS

I am a student at Cabrini University with a double major in Secondary Education and English. I love learning and teaching others. I have experience babysitting young children and working with children of all age groups. I have a passion for literature and writing, so I would be most excited to work with middle/ high school students on their writing and college essays, but I love working with kids of all ages so I am flexible with the age of my students. I am excited to work with you and your student!
